

Dear IMA representatives,

As you know, the next IMA president will be Patrick Cordier from Lille, France. As stipulated by the IMA statutes, Council herewith proposes the following slate of nominees for election or re-election. We ask for your support, but be reminded that additional nominations are possible (see IMA statutes). Elections will take place at the XXII General Meeting of the IMA in Melbourne during the 2nd Business Meeting (July 15th, 12:30-13:30, Room: Plenary three). If you are unable to attend, please insure that alternative representative(s) of your country will be present. Please note that your country may have more than one ballot, depending on the number of members in your society
